Re: United States v. Richard Gaffey and Harald Joachim von der Goltz, 18 Cr. 693 (RMB)

Dear Judge Berman:

The Government respectfully submits this letter, with the consent of defense counsel, to request an extension to file its opposition to the Defendants' Motion to Compel the Government to Identify the Documents It Intends to Use at Trial (Dkt. No. 74) (May 7, 2019), which is presently due on May 22, 2019 (see Dkt. No. 79). The Government requests an extension until June 5, 2019 to respond. This is the first extension sought by the Government.

The Government requests this brief extension to file its opposition because the Government intends to engage in discussions with the defendants in an effort to provide to them additional information relevant to their requests. Accordingly, additional time would allow for the Government to meet and confer with the defendants and determine whether certain concerns raised by the defendants in their motion may be obviated. In addition, certain of Government counsel is scheduled to be out of the office for both official and personal travel during this period, and thus the requested extension will allow for counsel involved to have enough time to discuss the issues raised with the defendants.
